NEW HARVEST FEATURES

This week's original stories by our staffers and volunteers:

- Ever wondered about the stories behind the people supporting New Harvest? For our latest Getting to Know interview, we sat down with donor Joshua March, CEO and Founder of Conversocial, baguazhang fighter, and a longtime dreamer of cultured meat who is now helping New Harvest make it a reality.

FROM AROUND THE WEB

Our favourite content this week about the world of cellular agriculture:

- Why is the task of establishing cellular agriculture science in the hands of a tiny, donor-funded non-profit research institute? Columbia University Professor Peter de Menocal's description of the various factors leading to our current "Climate Innovation Gap" for the Huffington Post helps to explain the current reality of critically underfunded science in the U.S., and how philanthropy towards research in solutions like cultured meat is desperately needed if we are to innovate our way out of vulnerability to impending climate shocks.

- SXSW Eco is proud to announce the Synthetic Biology + Gene Editing track at their next conference in October. Check out Morgan Catalina's blog about what attendees can expect from the lineup of industry heavyweights like DuPont and cell ag pioneers like Perfect Day Foods, Afineur, and Pembient.
- Treena Hein mentions New Harvest and cultured meat in her exploration of protein-rich food trends in her article for Food in Canada.
