NYC

- Have you heard? Our second-ever conference on cellular agriculture will be taking place in NYC this fall! Exact dates are TBD, so watch this space for updates! If you're interested in sponsoring or exhibiting at New Harvest 2017, please get in touch.
- We've moved our original content over to a new space on Medium! New Harvest project profiles, blog posts, interviews, and other content will continue to be hosted there as always, but you will be able to subscribe to and share it via Medium as well.
- Team New Harvest is headed to Ottawa this week, for our first ever Fellows retreat! Believe it or not, this will only be the second time (after the New Harvest 2016 conference) that Isha, myself, and our four Research Fellows (Abi, Marie, Natalie, and Jess) will be in the same place, at the same time. Needless to say, we're pretty excited! If you're following our Instagram account, you might even catch a story here and there.

UPCOMING EVENTS

- New Harvest's Meat/Culture video (created by Derek Lau) will be included in the Museum of Design Atlanta's exhibit Food by Design: Sustaining the Future until May 7.
- Isha is speaking at the Stanley N. Gershoff Symposium at Tufts University on March 31 in Boston, MA.
- Isha will be moderating a panel at the International Dairy Foods Association ProFood Tech conference, April 4 - 6 in Chicago, IL.

FROM AROUND THE WEB

Our favourite content this week about the world of cellular agriculture:

- New Harvest Research Fellow Natalie was interviewed for the Soonish podcast, which you can listen to here [at the 22:20 mark]! Host Wade Roush's coverage of cultured meat is refreshingly grounded, and we loved that his questions were both in-depth and accessible at the same time. A full version of Natalie's interview will also be made available soon.
- Interested in the novel biotech products that could emerge over the next 5-10 years, and how they may be regulated? The National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine report "Preparing for Future Products of Biotechnology" is being released tomorrow. To take part in the public release webinar, register here. The recording will be made available online following the webinar.
- Over three years after the world's first cultured beef hamburger was publicly tasted, ITV caught up with Mark Post on his effort to bring cultured meat to market in The Netherlands. Check out the story here!
