

"If we continue to innovate and scale, cell ag can usher in some balance that our world so desperately needs." - Robert Downey Jr.

Hi friend,

I'm coming to your inbox with a short but very sweet update...

Robert Downey Jr.'s FootPrint Coalition has made a charitable grant to New Harvest!!!

Yup, IRON MAN.

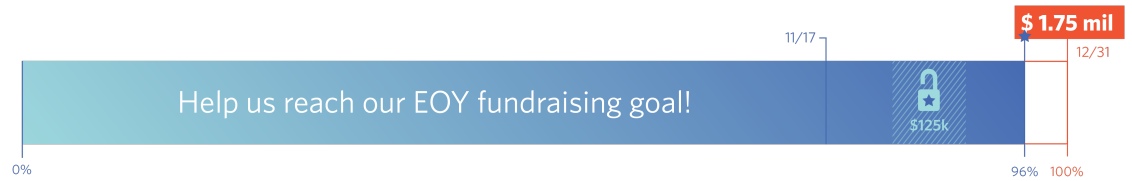

The grant will support our new safety initiative: A collaboration between 50+ companies and safety experts to generate independent, credible data about the safety of cultured meat.

A big, meaty thank you to FootPrint Coalition for their generous support of our work. We are thrilled to welcome Robert and the rest of the team to our donor community!

Talk soon!

We are in the final push of our EOY fundraising campaign to raise $1.75M to continue pushing cell ag forward in 2021. Your contribution will allow us to continue training the next generation of cell ag leaders. No gift is too small to move the needle.

Support groundbreaking cultured meat research
